Section III – IP Addresses
5. Provision of IP Addresses:

a. IP Addresses shall be obtained from the APNIC following its open assignment policies or through holders of IP Address assignments located in the Republic of the Union of Myanmar subject to conditions set out in this Directive.
b. IP Address assignment holders
i. which are incorporated in the Republic of the Union of Myanmar under the relevant law as Myanmar or Foreign Company; or
ii. who are permanent residents in the Republic of the Union of Myanmar; and
iii. who have been issued with IP Addresses by APNIC; shall within thirty (30) working days after IP Addresses were assigned to this IP Address Assignment Holder submit required information as specified by the Department from time to time in accordance with Clause 7a to the Department manually or electronically or as otherwise directed by the Department.
c. All IP Address Assignment Holders shall be entitled to provide these IP Addresses to third parties on a permanent basis (e.g. fixed IP Address) for use in the Republic of the Union of Myanmar.
d. The provision of IP Addresses by IP Address Assignment Holder to third parties shall be conducted in a fair, reasonable, equitable and non-discriminatory manner and third parties shall be assigned with unique public IP Addresses. In case IP Address Assignment Holders define roles and responsibilities in relation to use of provisioned IP Addresses, then these roles and responsibilities shall be fair, reasonable, equitable and non-discriminatory.
6. Conditions of Use:
a. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any conditions of use imposed by APNIC, the holder of any IP Addresses shall comply with the following conditions of use as set out in Clause 6b subject but not limited to any other conditions referred in this Direction.
b. The use of any IP Address shall be subjected to the following conditions:
<ol> <li>The use of any IP Address shall be subject to this Directive;</li> </ol>
ii. The IP Addresses issued shall not be charged, sold, auctioned, traded or transferred otherwise than as permitted under this Directive;
iii. Comply with the conditions imposed by APNIC to the extent that they are not contrary to the conditions of this Directive, the Law and any other laws, rules and regulation as the case may be; and
iv. IP Addresses that have been issued to third parties shall not be suspended or cancelled by the provider except:
(a) where the end-user has not complied with defined roles and responsibilities of the IP Address Assignment Holder to which the IP Addresses relate, including timely payment of charges associated with the service;
(b) in compliance with instructions from the Department; or
(c) upon the third party's request.
7. Retention of Information:
a. IP Address Assignment Holder shall keep or retain the following information:
i. the IP Address Assignment Holder's use of IP Addresses issued by APNIC;
ii. the assigned IP Addresses; and
iii. the identity of each third party the IP Address Assignment Holder issued IP Addresses to.
b. The Department may request IP Address Assignment Holder to submit information in accordance with Clause 7a to the Department manually or electronically or as otherwise directed by the Department.
Section IV - Autonomous System Numbers (ASN)
8. Provision of ASN: ASN used in the Republic of the Union of Myanmar shall be obtained from APNIC following its open assignment policies subject to conditions set out in this Directive or as the Department otherwise determines.
Section V - Domain Names
9. No Retrospective Effect:
a. The provisions of this Section shall not have retrospective effect and shall not nullify any valid Domain Names which have been assigned prior to the effective date of this Directive in accordance with Clause 1c of this Directive, unless the assignment was obtained dishonestly or in bad faith.
b. Valid Domain Names assigned prior to the effective date of this Directive shall be protected for the period of one years after designation of a Registry. It shall be the responsibility of the Registry which is determined by the Department in accordance with Clause 10c of this Directive to electronically contact the holder of valid Domain Names assigned prior to the effective date of this Directive not later than nine months after its determination as Registry to inform the holders of Domain Names assigned prior to the effective date of this Directive that they shall reregister the Domain Names within one year of the designation of the Registry.
c. The Registry shall provide with its electronic information to holder of Domain Names assigned prior to the effective date of this Directive the examples of at least two Registrars which they could use for the reregistration process.

d. The Registry shall send electronically on a monthly basis the electronic information to the holder of Domain Names registered prior to the effective date up to one year after designation of the Registry unless the holder of Domain Names registered prior to the effective date of this Directive has reregistered the Domain Names.
e. If the holder of Domain Names registered prior to the effective date of this Directive has not reregistered the Domain Names registered prior to the effective date of this Directive within one year from designation of the Registry, then the Registry shall suspend the Domain Names. The suspended Domain Names shall be reserved for a period of three months after suspended and the holder of Domain Names registered prior to the effective date of this Directive shall be permitted to reregister the Domain Names within these three months the Domain Names are reserved.
f. If the holder of Domain Names registered prior to the effective date of this Directive does not reregister within the period of one year and three months from the date of designation of the Registry then the Registry shall cancel and delete the Domain Names registered prior to the effective Date of this Directive and the Domain Names shall be open for registration by any third party subject to the Clauses 12, 13, 14, 16 and 17.
10. Duties of the Department:
a. In accordance with ISO 3166-1 which designates the ".mm" ccTLD to the Republic of the Union of Myanmar and in accordance with Chapter 7 of the Law, the Department shall direct rules and regulation on allocation and usage of the ".mm" ccTLD and all Domain Names under the ".mm" ccTLD.
b. Apart from the ".mm" ccTLD Domain Names applied for and/or already in existence the Department may, from time to time, determine rules for the assignment of Domain Names under the ".mm" ccTLD. Rules for assignment of Domain Names shall be subject to public consultation and shall be designed that they ensure high technical quality, are non-discriminatory, promote predictability, protect personal data and consumer interests, promote the interests of Internet users, individually and as a group, and promote national interests and allow for international developments in the Internet.
c. The Department may determine from time to time a third party to operate and administer the ".mm" ccTLD which shall not be entitled to act as a Registrar. The Department may define the conditions to be met by the Registry and may issue a public call for tender in order to designate the Registry.
d. The activities of the Registry shall be subject to authorization by the Department. The authorization shall be for a specific time period and may be subject to renewal. The Registry shall not transfer its activities to another entity without prior approval by the Department.
e. The Department may amend the provisions of the authorization of the Registry or contract with the Registry prior to expiry if there is a change in circumstances or in the law and such amendment is necessary to protect overriding public interests.
f. The Department shall exercise supervision of the Registry to ensure compliance with the Law and this Directive. g. If the Registry fails to satisfy the requirements of the Law or this Directive, then the Department may order the Registry to remedy unlawful conditions or may order operations to cease within a specified time limit.
h. If the Registry terminates its registration activities, whether voluntarily or by order pursuant to this Directive, or for other reasons, all Registered Data shall be transferred to the Department or to a new Registry.
i. The Registry's duties may be taken over by the Department until a new Registry is established. In this case, the Department shall take over the Registered Data free of charge and shall in turn transfer these data to the new Registry free of charge.
j. The Department shall decide whether operations in the interim period shall take place in accordance with the rules of the Registry being terminated, and the rules concerning the complaints board, or whether new rules shall be adopted.
k. The Department may from time to time appoint Registrars. The Registry shall delegate parts of the registration process in accordance with Clause 20, 21, 23 and 25, including forwarding applications and alteration notices on behalf of applicants for, and Registrants of, Domain Names, to the Registrars.
11. Rights and Obligations of the Registry
a. The Registry's duties shall include but shall not be limited to the following.
i. The Registry shall install, manage and update the technical infrastructure required for the allocation and management of the ".mm" ccTLD while taking the necessary precautions to ensure reliability, accessibility, availability, security and operability of the infrastructure; <ol> <li>The Registry shall provide reliable and professional operation of the Domain Name System within the ".mm" ccTLD in accordance with the applicable technical standards;</li> </ol>
iii. The Registry shall manage domain names within the national country code domain and shall implement rules for assignment of Domain Names under the ".mm" ccTLD as directed by the Department;
iv. The Registry shall install, administer and update a central public database providing any interested persons with guaranteed real-time access to information about domain name holders while taking necessary precautions to ensure reliability, accessibility, availability, security and operability of the infrastructure;
v. The Registry shall ensure that the infrastructure in accordance with Clause 11ai and 11aiv conforms to the state of the art and is compatible with international standards used for the domain name system; and

vi. The Registry shall in the context of its duties to allocate and manage domains, work towards the stability of the Domain Name System.
b. The Registry shall promote competition between Registrars by granting all Registrars the same terms and treating Registrars in a non-discriminatory manner.
c. The Registry may charge a fee to the Registrars. Fees charged by the Registry to Registrars shall be fair, based on costs and approved by the Department.
d. The terms of the standard contract between the Registry and the Registrars shall be non-discriminatory and may be reviewed by the Department from time to time.
e. The Registry shall ensure that electronic copies are kept of all Registered Data, for at least five years.
f. The Registry shall safeguard privacy of personal information regarding Registrants of Domain Name in accordance with national data protection laws, once effective.
